We walked on the beach beside that old hotel
They're tearing it down now
But it's just as well
I haven't shown you everything a man can do
So stay with me baby
I've got plans for you

Playmate

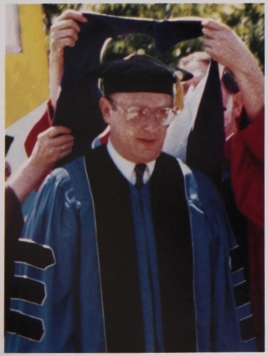

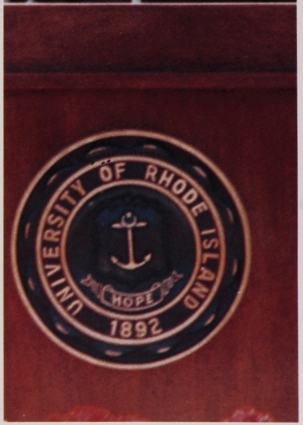

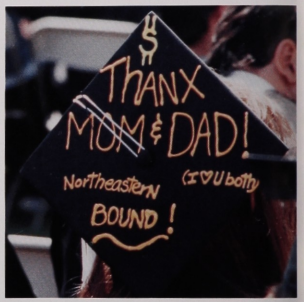

This is the time to remember
Cause it will not last forever
These are the days
To hold on to
Cause we won't
Although We'll want to
This is the time
But time is gonna change
You've given me the best of you
And now I need the rest of you

UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND

This is the time to remember
Cause it will not last forever
These are the days
to hold on to
Cause we won't
Although we want to
This is the time
But time is gonna change
I know we've got to move somehow
But I don't want to lose you now

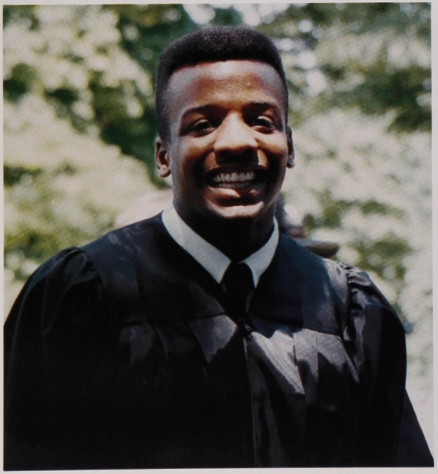

Sometimes it's so easy
To let a day
Slip on by
Without even seeing each other at all
But this is the time you'll turn back to and so will I
And those will be days you can never recall

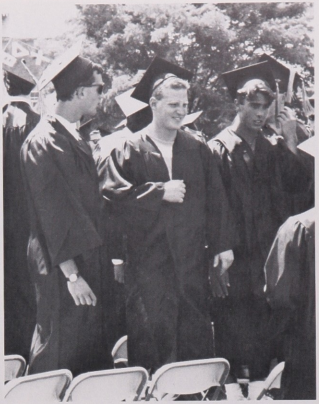

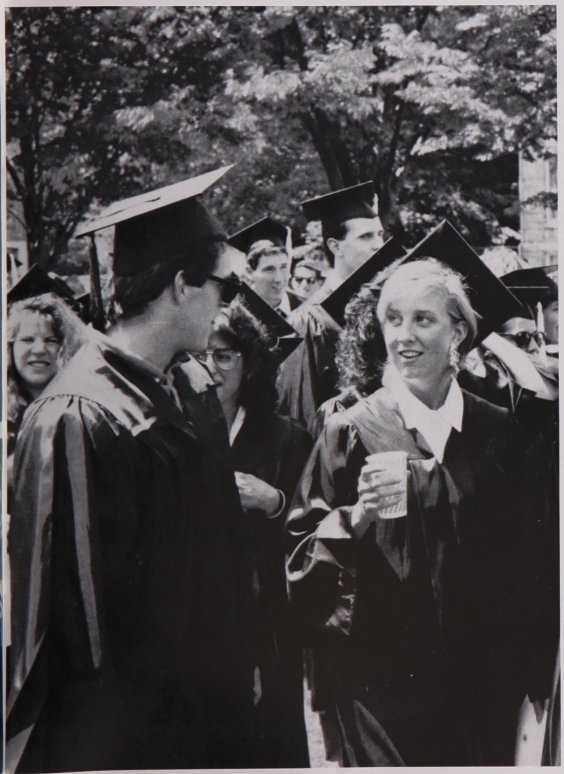

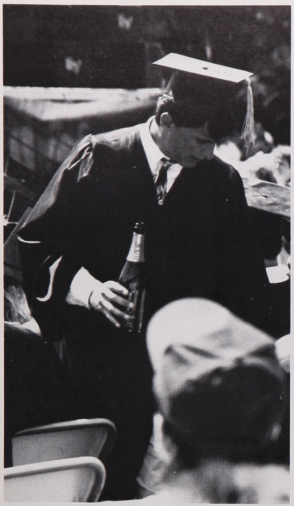

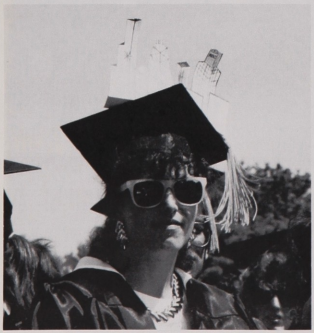

And so we embrace again
Behind the dunes
This beach is so cold
On winter afternoons
But holding you close is like holding the summer sun
I'm warm from the memory of days to come

This Is The Time To Remember Cause It Will Not Last Forever
These Are The Days To Hold On To Cause We Won't Although We'll Want To
This Is The Time-But Time Is Gonna Change You've Given Me The Best Of You
But Now I Need The Rest Of You

Dorm

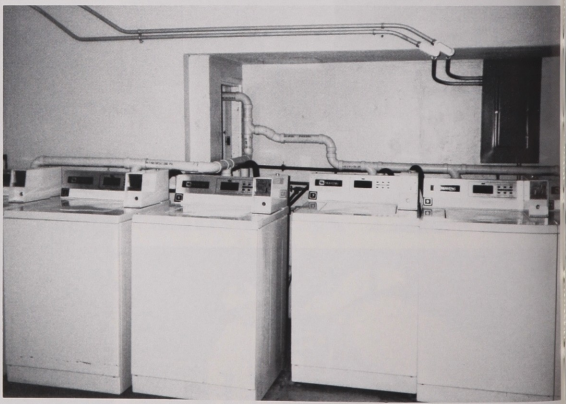

Dorm life. It is an experience one may never forget, (no matter how hard you try). Nothing can compare to being crammed into a hall with dozens of other "students" and trying to accomplish any activity that has academic value. You hear the echoes of your father's voice telling you, "You're there to learn", yeah, learn how to stay awake all night partying and still make it to your eight o'clock class - on time. Learn, that if you wake up late there is no hot water, that a home cooked meal is something you order out, and that just because the fire alarm sounds at 3:47 a.m. does not necessarily mean there is a fire. Yet after a while, your dorm room really does become a home away from home. This unique experience is just one of the many "learning experiences to be had at U.R.I.

One lesson that is well learned by many URI students is the importance of the Friday afternoon Happy Hour. The mere thought of Happy Hours to come, or the memory of last weeks (if that is possible), can carry one through the week of academic stress. Everyone has their favorite place whether it be Windsors or The Bon Vue Inn the area clubs provide us with an escape from campus life, a place to hang out with old friends, meet new friends, and "socialize".

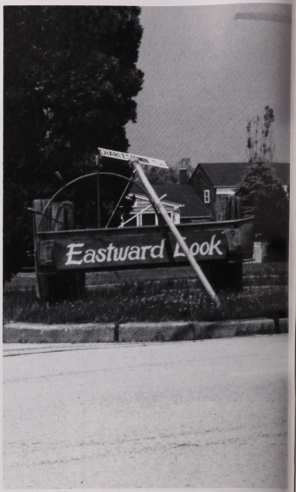

Casey's

WINDSORS

Eastward Look

So, you've had it with the dorm life experience? Luckily, U.R.I. students have an alternative, moving "down the line." All you need is a few friends, a little patience for house hunting, and some mode of transportation to get you from your couch to your classes. Living down the line has its good and bad points First off, it's just what you've always wanted, a real home without your parents. You have your own kitchen, livingroom, washer and dryer, and all the comforts of home (hopefully a TV, VCR, stereo system included). No one around to yell at you to clean your room. But then again, it is your house, which entails responsibilities. Perhaps the most major side effect from living off campus is the intense headache one gets when trying to find a parking space on campus (when of course you're already late). But that's just all part of the Down the Line experience.

TOP: AMERICAN TROOPS IN SAUDI ARABIA- In the early hours of August 2nd following negotiations and promises by Saddam Hussein not to use force an Iraqi army invaded Kuwait. The U.S. wasted no time in answering the agression and 7 months later the U.S. and allied forces pushed Iraq out of Kuwait. LEFT: DAVID SOUTER became the latest member of the Supreme Court in October. He is seen here with PRESIDENT BUSH after his nomination was announced. RIGHT: "BANNED IN THE USA." 2-LIVE CREW is a rap group that made hit songs and big headlines this year. The police in Florida considered their album, "As Nasty As You Wanna Be" to be obscene, and a record store owner was found guilty after selling it.

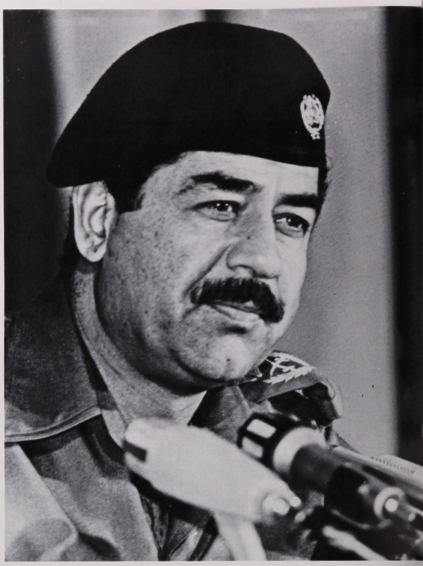

TOP LEFT: Even though 34-year-old JOE MONTANA lost superbowl '90 to the Giants he has made history by negotiating one of the richest contracts in NFL history with the San Francisco 49ers. TOP RIGHT: NELSON MANDELA was given a life sentence in 1962 for plotting to overthrow the South African government. He became one of the world's most influential prisoners. But in February 1990, at the age of 71, Nelson Mandela was released after lengthy negotiations with President F.W. de Klerk. LEFT: JIM HENSON was a puppeteer with an enormous following. On May 16, 1990, at the age of 53, he died from a severe case of pneumonia. During his career, he created an endearing menagerie of creatures, characters of timeless appeal. In 1969 Henson's creations—Kermit, Big Bird, and Cookie Monster—first appeared on Sesame Street. Then, in 1976, The Muppet Show was born giving life to Miss Piggy, Fozzie Bear and many, many others.

THE TIMES

WORLD EVENTS 90-91

TOP LEFT: EMPTY SHELVES MOSCOW- Russia is finding it difficult to feed itself as food has become a scarce commodity in the Soviet Union.
TOP RIGHT: SADDAM HUSSEIN remains President of Iraq even as the Persian Gulf War draws to a close. Many wonder if he will remain in a position of power for much longer.
BELOW: Hours after the Kuwaiti invasion, Arabs throughout the world took to the streets in anti-Iraq demonstrations. Pictured here one of those demonstrations in London.

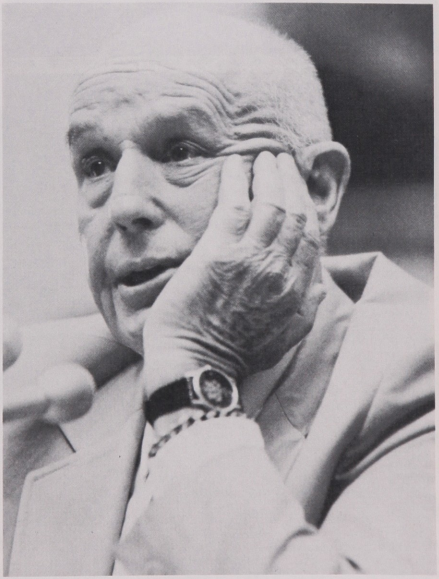

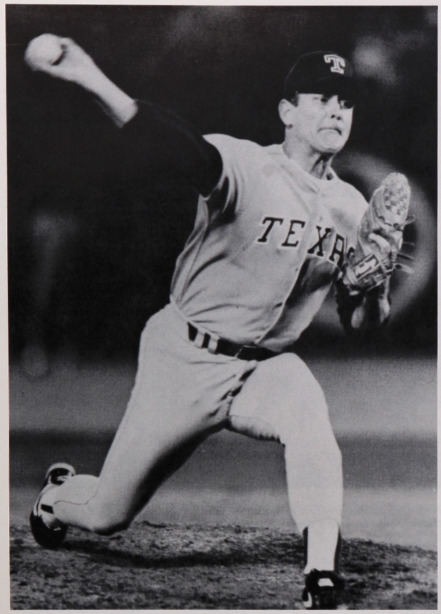

It was a time of change in Eastern Europe. Thousands of students marched for five hours to commemorate student Jan Opletal, killed by Nazis 50 years ago. When demonstrators tried to reach central Wenceslas Square, police attacked them with tear gas, dogs and clubs.

After months of debate and years of struggle, East Germany and West Germany became the Federal Republic of Germany on Oct. 3.

The 'Savings and Loan' business hit a brick wall in 1990. Pictured here is FDIC chairman William Seidman.

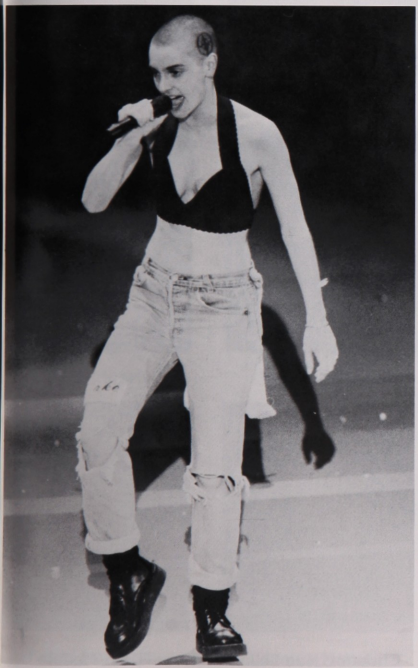

ABOVE: NOLAN RYAN can still put plenty of heat on his fastball. He holds more than 40 major league records. BELOW: DONALD TRUMP'S millions were slowly eroded in 1990 to the edge of financial disaster. RIGHT: MIKHAIL GORBACHEV is struggling to unite and reform the Soviet Union. He is seen here during a recent summit meeting with PRESIDENT BUSH.

JANET JACKSON skyrocketed to the top in 1990 hitting it big with "Rhythm Nation 1814."

ABOVE: M.C. HAMMER is a 27 year old rapper from California whose 2nd album, "Please Hammer Don't Hurt 'Em," sold close to 5 million copies and is one of a few rap albums in history to land at the top of the pop charts. BELOW: BILLY JOEL played to standing-room-only around the world this year and his latest album, "Stormfront" has been a solid seller for almost a year.

SINEAD O'CONNOR won the best video of the year by a female at the seventh annual MTV Music Video Awards for her avant-garde "Nothing Compares 2U."

Thank You, Thank You, And Thank You!

The Renaissance would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who lent their time and patience to the compilation and completion of this book. The coaches, club leaders and advisors were invaluable and the book could not have been as successful without their help. We would also like to thank Norval Garnett, our Jostens representative; Joe Durinzi of Carl Wolf Photography Studio; Doug Gammage, University photographer; Wayne Sutton from College Publications; and Tom Dougan who supplied us with an endless amount of lists and labels. Congratulations are sent to Maureen McDermitt, our advisor, on the birth of her son, Ryan Edward, and special thanks to Ceci Lou for filling in during her absence.

Last but certainly not least no list would be complete without thanking the three little mice whom stole their way into the Renaissance office late one night and saw to the completion of the pages and pages and page of senior portraits hours before their deadline.
